Maria Fuller is from Earl Grey, SK, a student of Janice Elliott-Denike. She has performed for CBC, travelled to Europe with the South Saskatchewan Youth Orchestra, and has won several competitions at the provincial level; she also plays the trumpet in a variety of functions. Her passion has always been to become a concert pianist.

Karen Mak is from Saskatoon, SK. , a student of Kathleen Solose. She has participated in the Saskatoon Music Festival and the Musical Art Club for several years, and also plays the flute. She plans on teaching music privately, as well as in the school system.
